Day - 02	Goa

After breakfast, proceed for a full day tour of Goa and its famed beaches and Churches. The churches in Goa largely reflect European architectural styles. Majority of the churches in Goa were built during the Portuguese regime. But even today, these churches stand tall with plenty of historical importance.

Church Of St. Francis Of Assisi is situated in Old Goa. A beautiful octagonal tabernacle richly decorated in an ornate style has two statues, one of St. Francis of Assisi and the other of Jesus on the Cross.

Basilica of Bom Jesus is perhaps the most famous church at Goa. The church houses the sacred relics of St. Francis Xavier, patron saint of Goa, who died while on a sea voyage to China on December 2,1552.

Northern Goa boasts of beaches like Anjuna, Baga, Dona Paula, Benaulim and Chapora, known for their festive atmosphere and flea markets.
