OVERNIGHT AT HOTEL

Day – 02	Goa

Breakfast at hotel

0900 hrs After breakfast, proceed for a full day tour of Goa and its famed beaches and Churches.

The churches in Goa largely reflect European architectural styles. Majority of the churches in Goa were built during the Portuguese regime. But even today, these churches stand tall with plenty of historical importance.

Church Of St. Francis Of Assisi is situated in Old Goa. A beautiful octagonal tabernacle richly decorated in an ornate style has two statues, one of St. Francis of Assisi and the other of Jesus on the Cross.

Visit the Basilica of Bom Jesus, the most famous of all the churches in Goa. The center of attraction is the Tomb of St. Francis Xavier that has his mortal remains preserved in a silver casket who died while on a sea voyage to China on December 2,1552.

Across the street is Se Cathedral, the largest of all the Portuguese cathedrals whose building style is Portuguese Gothic with a Tuscan exterior and Corinthian interiors.

Drive along the Mandovi River via picturesque Dona Paula

Northern Goa boasts of beaches like Anjuna, Baga, Dona Paula, Benaulim and Chapora, known for their festive atmosphere and flea markets.

Mumbai , the capital city of Maharashtra State, formerly known as Bombay lies in the southwestern part of India. In 17 th century Mumbai was given by Portuguese as dowry to Charles II of England when he married Catherine. The group of seven islands was leased to the East India Company who offered freedom of business and religion to persons who came and settled here. Today it is a commercial capital, industrial powerhouse, busiest port and a fashion capital and has the world's biggest textile market. Mumbai is the hub of Indian film industry, which has played a pivoted role in the development of cinematography. "Bollywood", as it is called, produces the second most number of pictures in the world every year, next only to Hollywood, U.S.A. Mumbai claims to be the world's largest production centre for films.
1400 hrs Afternoon visiting / viewing - Gate Way of India - Mumbai's most famous landmark, The Gateway of India, is situated at Apollo Bunder. It was designed by George Wikket. It was built to commemorate the visit of King George V and Queen Mary to India in 1911.
The Prince of Wales Museum This museum stands not too far from the Gateway of India. It has a priceless collection of art, sculpture, china and other antics. Carefully preserved, this mid-Victorian Gothic style building built in 1904 with beautiful gardens surrounding it, is worth visiting in Mumbai.

OVERNIGHT AT HOTEL

Day – 04	Mumbai
Breakfast at hotel
0800 hrs Morning excursion to Elephanta caves, a UNESCO World Heritage site ,known in ancient times as Gharapuri. The present name Elephanta, was given by 17th century Portuguese explorers, after seeing a monolithic basalt sculpture of an elephant found here near the entrance. . This island is a popular tourist destination for a day trip because of the island's cave temples, the Elephanta Caves, that have been carved out of rock. The island is easily accessible by ferry from Mumbai, being about 10 km from the south east coast of the island city. Boats leave daily from the Gateway of India, taking about an hour each way for the journey subject to the weather conditions and the tide on the sea.
